

„An evening at home“, San Francisco 1979

During my film courses at the San Francisco Art Institute I have intensively studied the effects of light and shadow with my Leica M3 camera. The invitation to participate in the Nove Mestu exhibition has prompted me to pull out the forgotten prints. This little private scene was taken in my apartment with the self-timer function.